The printed label that is displayed with each object includes, in this order:

1) Who made it

2) Where and when it was made; the artist’s nationality and dates of birth and death (if known)

3) Title or identity of the object and its date; titles are in English; alternate names appear in parentheses; all dates are AD (Anno Domini) or CE (Common Era) unless otherwise noted

4) Medium/technique: what it is made of, and how (briefly)

5) Credit line: how the object came to the museum

6) Accession or loan number, assigned to each object to identify it in the museum’s records