We invite you to enjoy our collections, exhibitions, and programs. Our staff and volunteers are here to assure that your visit is worthwhile; let us know if you have questions.
The printed label that is displayed with each object includes, in this order:

1) Who made it
2) Where and when it was made; the artist’s nationality and dates of birth and death (if known)
3) Title or identity of the object and its date; titles are in English; alternate names appear in parentheses; all dates are AD (Anno Domini) or CE (Common Era) unless otherwise noted
4) Medium/technique: what it is made of, and how (briefly)
Edition information for prints and casts (if known)
5) Credit line: how the object came to the museum
6) Accession or loan number, assigned to each object to identify it in the museum’s records