EYE OF THE COLLECTOR

Saturday, May 6, 2017

A Palo Alto family has built a special home to accommodate their growing art collection. This gives the lucky viewers an idea of the passion of these collectors. They have traveled to art fairs around the world to add to their collection, as well as developed relationships with local art gallery owners and artists. The art is integrated into the family’s daily life. The children have their favorites and these works are displayed in their rooms. The collection has been thoughtfully curated, and those who attend this event will leave with a new appreciation for the importance of art in everyday life.

HIGHLIGHTS:
- Private tour by collectors in their home
- Gallery owners and artists at the home
- Brunch in the home

ART TRIPS FOR MEMBERS

TRIPS are for members of the Cantor Arts Center/Anderson Collection at Stanford University and, in some cases, their guests. To register, please send three separate items for each trip selected.

1. The applicable registration form
2. A check (payable to the Cantor Arts Center)
3. A business size, self-addressed, stamped envelope

If a trip is oversubscribed, there will be a drawing. You will be notified of the status of your application shortly after the deadline date.

COUPON POLICY
For priority selection enclose a Trip Coupon, which entitles two to apply. These coupons entitle the holder (and guest) to priority registration when received before the reply by date. However, they may not guarantee placement if the trip is oversubscribed by coupon holders.

Many trips require the ability to climb stairs and hills and involve extensive standing and walking. For more information on a specific trip, call an individual listed as coordinator for that trip.

For membership policies related to Art Trips, please call 650-723-3482.
